EVENING TUITION.

MONS. S. CHARTON respectfully informs his friends and pupils, that it is his intention of opening a course of French conversation and French composition, under such arrangement as may suit the attendance of those gentlemen who may be pleased to honor him with their patronage. He would also be pleased to see those gentlemen who applied to him during the summer, and such others as may be desirous of commencing the study with him, as he intends opening a class for beginners so soon as six scholars shall-lave been engaged.

The Chartonian System, otherwise the system of nature, under which his pupils have so much profited, proving to conviction its auperiority over all other methods of teaching the French language, wants but to be known to be appreciated.

N EW GOODS JUST RECEIVED.—The subscriber would call the attention of all those who are in want of either fancy or staple dry goods, to his unusually large and well-selected stock. He has no hesitation in saying that his stock at present is far superior to anything he has heretofore offered; and he pledges himself to sell as low as any other store in the District. He has this day received, and names, in part—
